Introduction to Doctrinal Footnotes

These theological footnotes are divided into three sections (1) explanation, (2) illustration, and (3) application. When you have absorbed all the notes within one topic area, you will have completed a total survey of that doctrine.

IV-The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit

4-Holy Spirit in Creation

Gen. 1:2-5

Explanation: The first emblem of the Holy Spirit in Scripture is that of the Spirit “moving” or literally “brooding” over the waters, much as a bird broods over her eggs to hatch them.

Illustration: The Scripture assigns to the Holy Spirit the works of creating the world (Psalm 33:6), of brooding over the waters (Gen. 1:2), of garnishing the heavens (Job 26:13); of renewing the earth (Psalm 104:30), and of sustaining life (Psalm 104:29). The Holy Spirit’s work in Creation results in order (Isaiah 40:12,14; Gen. 1:2) life (Job 33:4); beauty (Job 26:13); and renewal (Psalm 104:30). The work of the Holy Spirit in Creation is one of the biblical proofs of His deity.

Lecture #8, Part 2

Application: The Scriptures also describe the physical body of the Christian as the temple of the Holy Spirit, and suggest He is in the process of recreating us into Christ's image (Phil. 1:6).

5-Conviction of the Holy Spirit

John 16:8

Explanation: The word conviction embraces a number of biblical expressions in its meaning. Originally it derived from two Latin terms meaning "cause to see." The New Testament uses the term reproof, conviction, and illumination to communicate the ministry of the Holy Spirit whereby He causes the individual to "see" (understand) truth.

Illustration: When the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost, many who had no prior conviction of sin were convicted by the Holy Spirit, which led to their salvation (Acts 2:36-37).

Application: Christians today should also depend upon this ministry of the Holy Spirit to help them understand truth and respond accordingly.
