

The Doctrines of Grace

Ephesians 1:3-10

Ephesians 1:3-10 (NASB)

<sup>3</sup> “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ,
<sup>4</sup> just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him. In love
<sup>5</sup> He predestined us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the kind intention of His will,
<sup>6</sup> to the praise of the glory of His grace, which He freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.
<sup>7</sup> In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace
<sup>8</sup> which He lavished on us. In all wisdom and insight
<sup>9</sup> He made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His kind intention which He purposed in Him
<sup>10</sup> with a view to an administration suitable to the fullness of the times, that is, the summing up of all things in Christ, things in the heavens and things on the earth. In Him”

These are the so-called Five Points of Calvinism.

These are sometimes set forth in the form of an acrostic on the word “TULIP”, as follows:

T Total Depravity (i.e. Total Inability)

U Unconditional Election

L Limited Atonement (i.e. Particular Redemption)

I Irresistible Calling

P Perseverance of the Saints

2. UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION

Ephesians 1:4-5 (NASB)

<sup>4</sup> “Just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him. In love
<sup>5</sup> He predestined us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the kind intention of His will.”

We grant that there is a “kind of election” that is held by many believers today.

Broadly speaking this is based on Romans 8:29:

Romans 8:29 (NASB)

<sup>29</sup> “For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren.”

The case runs something like this: God foresaw those who were going to accept Christ, and therefore He “elected” them to eternal life.

Against this view we point out that:

1. God’s foreknowledge is spoken of in connection with a people and not in connection with any action which people performed.

The Scripture reads: “Whom he did foreknow” etc. Romans 8:29 (NASB)

Romans 8:29 (NASB)

<sup>29</sup> “For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren.”

Again God speaks thus through Amos: Amos 3:2 (NASB)

Amos 3:2 (NASB)

<sup>2</sup> “You only have I chosen among all the families of the earth; Therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.”

That is to say, irrespective of any action, good or bad, performed by them, God “knew” them in the sense that He loved and chose them to be His own. It is thus that He foreknew His elect.

2. It will not do to say that God elected us because He saw something that we would do — that is, accept His Son.

We are not chosen because we perform such a holy work as “accepting” Christ, but we are chosen so that we might be able to “accept” Him.

Ephesians 2:10 (NASB)

<sup>10</sup> “For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them.”

3. Neither will it do to say that God foresaw those who would believe.

Acts 13:48 makes this abundantly clear:

Acts 13:48 (NASB)-----

<sup>48</sup> “When the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord; and as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.”

Election is not on account of our believing, but our believing is on account of our being elected — “appointed to eternal life.”

4. Again, to say that we exercised faith in accepting Christ, and that God foresaw this faith, and, therefore, elected us, only drives us a step further back; for, where did we get the faith to exercise?

The Scriptures provide the answer: “It is the gift of God, not of ourselves.”

Ephesians 2:8 (NASB)

<sup>8</sup>“For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.”

Surely, instead of arguing against these things, we should be doing what the Holy Spirit through the apostle Peter commands us to do:

2 Peter 1:10 (NASB)

<sup>10</sup>“Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never stumble.”
